EXECUTIVE SUMMARY 2011- 2012 MINNESOTA CAMPAIGN FINANCE

The Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board is charged with the administration of Minnesota Statutes Chapter 10A. In 2011 all committees and funds were required to file a year-end Report of Receipts and Expenditures. During 2012, an election year, campaign committees of candidates who filed for office were required to file three Reports of Receipts and Expenditures: pre-primary-election, pre-general-election, and year-end. The committees of candidates whose offices were not on the ballot in 2012, and candidates who chose not to file for office, filed only the year-end report. Offices on the ballot in 2012 included state Senate, House of Representatives, and certain judicial seats. In 2012, political party units filed pre-primary-election, pre-general-election, and year-end reports. Additional reports were required for political committees and political funds in 2012. These associations each filed a total of three pre-primary-election reports, two pre-general-election reports, and a year-end report.

This summary is based on reports received by the Board for the 2011- 2012 election cycle. Reports were filed by 142 candidates for 67 Senate seats, 298 candidates for 134 House of Representatives seats, 23 candidates for judicial seats, and 36 candidates in special elections. Additionally, this summary includes data supplied by 393 political party units and 402 political committees and funds.

Independent expenditure political committees and funds and ballot question committees and funds are permitted to accept corporate and other unregistered association contributions but may contribute only to other independent expenditure and ballot question committees and funds. This summary includes reported information for 41 independent expenditure committees and funds and 36 ballot question committees and funds.

This summary includes, for each candidate committee, political party unit, political committee, and political fund, total contributions received; total contributions to candidates, committees, and funds; total expenditures; beginning and ending cash balances; and the total amount of public subsidy received by qualifying candidates. Outstanding loans payable, unpaid bills, and disbursements other than campaign expenditures or contributions to candidates, committees, and funds are not itemized in the summary but are reflected in the totals reported in the summary. A comparison of the total amounts reported in election year 2012 by principal campaign committees, political party units, political committees, and political funds with similar data reported in election years 2010 and 2008 is also included. The data has not been verified or audited.

Over the years 2011 and 2012, legislative candidates who filed for office report receiving $6,785,151 from individual contributors, $1,570,290 from political committees and funds, $1,408,900 from political parties, and $357,831 from lobbyists. Senate candidates reported receiving $3,836,352 in contributions from individuals, lobbyists, political committees, and political funds, and $793,457 from political parties. Public subsidy payments to Senate candidates totaled $983,262. House of Representatives candidates reported receiving $4,878,592 in contributions from individuals, lobbyists, political committees, and political funds, and $615,443 from political parties. Public subsidy payments to House of Representatives candidates totaled $966,689. A total of $434,291 in contributions was reported received by 23 judicial candidates who filed for office.

Not included in the above totals are committees of candidates who did not file for office. Those committees for legislative and judicial candidates reported receiving $171,266 in contributions and making total expenditures of $357,869. Constitutional office candidates reported receiving $608,114 in contributions from individuals, lobbyists, political committees, and political funds, and a total of $2,250 from political parties in 2011 and 2012.

The following is a comparison of contributions of $500 or more received in 2012 by candidates running for office: Senate candidates received 1,491 donations, totaling $1,400,919 (34% of the total contributions received by Senate candidates in 2012). House of Representatives candidates received 1,563 donations, totaling $1,201,042 (26% of the total contributions received by House candidates in 2012). Judicial candidates received 201 donations, totaling $221,172 (50% of the total contributions received by judicial candidates in 2012). A listing of the candidate committees that received contributions in aggregate of $500 or more and the source of the contributions begins on page 104.

Most candidates voluntarily agree to limit expenditures in order to receive public subsidies. These subsidies include direct payments to eligible candidates during election years and the right to participate in the Political Contribution Refund (PCR) program. The PCR program has not been funded since 2009 so the program was not available to candidates or party units during the period covered by this summary. Agreements to abide by spending limits in order to receive money from the State Elections Campaign Fund were signed by 87% of registered candidates filing for office. A total of $1,949,951 in public subsidy was distributed to legislative candidates for the 2012 election. See page 5 for a breakdown of public subsidy by office.

Campaign expenditures are made for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate and apply toward the expenditure limit applicable to candidates who signed a Public Subsidy Agreement. In 2012, campaign expenditures for 142 Senate candidates totaled $4,809,827, a 14% increase in comparison with $4,168,502 spent during 2010. House candidate campaign expenditures for 298 candidates totaled $4,968,674, a 3% increase in comparison with $4,826,877 spent during 2010.

Independent expenditure committees and funds received cash contributions totaling $11,533,114 and made independent expenditures of $4,557,144 during 2011 and 2012. The difference between receipts and independent expenditures for this group is due to the fact that some independent expenditure committees and funds made donations to other independent expenditure committees and funds rather than making their own independent expenditures.

Two state constitutional amendments were on the ballot in 2012. Ballot question committees and funds received cash contributions totaling $32,641,048 and made ballot question expenditures of $19,558,581 during 2011 and 2012. The difference between receipts and ballot question expenditures is due to the fact that some ballot question committees and funds made donations to other ballot question committees and funds rather than making their own ballot question expenditures.

This summary also includes selected data from reports filed by political party units, political committees, and political funds. Reports filed by 393 political party units during the 2011 and 2012 disclosed receipt of contributions totaling $30,519,692 from which they made total contributions of $11,496,235 to state candidate committees and political committees and funds.

Included in this summary is a list of political committees, political funds, and independent expenditure political committees and funds that made independent expenditures expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate (starting on page 211).

STATE PUBLIC SUBSIDY PROGRAM
PAYMENTS TO STATE COMMITTEES OF POLITICAL PARTIES AND MULTICANDIDATE POLITICAL PARTY
EXPENDITURES IN 2011 - 2012

Ten percent of the amount designated on a state income or property tax return for a political party is paid to the state central committee of that party. The amount that political parties receive from the state public subsidy program must be deposited in a separate bank account and used only for multicandidate political party expenditures as defined in statute. The following chart provides the amount paid to the central committee of each qualified political party, and the multicandidate political party expenditures made by the party in 2011 and 2012.
